WILSON REJECTS PONTIFF'S PLANS

PEACE IMPOSSIBLE, SAYS PRES-IDENT, UNDER PRESENT CONDITIONS

PRAISES FOR THE POPE

Lauds Good Intentions, Says Peace Must Come From People To Be Lasting.

Washington, Aug. 29.—President Wilson has rejected the Pope's peace proposals.

In a note dispatched last night and made public here tonight, the President says that while every heart not blinded and hardened by the terrible war must be touched by the moving appeal of His Holiness, it would be fool to take the path of peace he points out if it does not in fact lead to the goal he proposes.

Enduring Peace Is Aim.

The text of the note follows:

"August 27, 1917.

"To His Holiness, Benedict XV, Pope:

"In acknowledgment of the communication of Your Holiness to the belligerent peoples, dated August 1, 1917, the President of the United States requests me to transmit the following reply:

"Every heart that has not been blinded and hardened by this terrible war must be touched by this moving appeal of His Holiness, the Pope, must feel the dignity and force of the humane and generous motives which prompted it, and must fervently wish that we might take the path of peace he so persuasively points out. But it would be folly to take it if it does in fact lead to the goal he proposes. Our response must be based upon the stern facts and un-on anything else. It is not a mere cessation of arms he desires; it is a stable and enduring peace. This agony must not be gone thru with again, and it must be a matter of very sober judgment what will insure us against it.

"His holiness in substance propose that we return to the status quo ante bellum, and that then there be a general condonation, disarmament, and a concert of nations, based upon an acceptance of the principle of arbitration; that by a similar concert freedom of the seas be established; and that the territorial claims of France and Italy, the perplexing problems of the Balkan States, and the restitution of Poland, be left to such conciliatory adjustments as may be possible in the new temper of such a peace, due regard being paid to the aspirations of the peoples whose political fortunes and affiliations will be involved.

Would Deliver Free Peoples.

"It is manifest that no part of this program can be successfully carried out unless the restitution of the status quo ante furnishes a firm and satisfactory basis for it. The object of this war is to deliver the free peoples of the world from the menace and the actual power of a vast military establishment controlled by an irresponsible government which, having secretly planned to dominate the world, proceeded to carry the plan out without regard either to the sacred obligations of treaty or the long-established practices and long-cherished principles of international action and honor; which chose its own time for the war; delivered its blow suddenly, and stopped at no barrier either of law or of mercy; swept a whole continent within the tide of blood;—not the blood of soldiers only, but the blood of innocent women and children also, and of the helpless poor; and now stands balked but not defeated, the enemy of four-fifths of the world. This power is not the German people. It is the ruthless master of the German people. It is no business of ours how that great people came under its control or submitted with temporary zest to the domination of its purpose; but it is our business to see to it that the history of the rest of the world is no longer left to its handling.

Might Renew Frightfulness.

"To deal with such a Power by way of peace upon the plan proposed by his holiness, the Pope, would so far as we can see, involve a recuperation of its strength and a renewal of its policy; would make it necessary to create a permanent hostile combination of nations against the German people, who are its instruments; and would result in abandoning the newborn Russian to the intrigue, the man-ifold subtle interference, and the certain counter-revolution which would be attempted by all the malign influences to which the German government has of late accustomed the world. Can peace be based upon a restitution of its power or upon any word of honor it could pledge in a treaty of settlement and accommodation?

"Responsible statesmen must now everywhere see, if they never saw before, that no peace can rest securely upon political or economical restrictions meant to benefit some nations and cripple or embarrass others, upon vindictive action of any sort, or any kind of revenge or deliberate injury. The American people have suffered intolerable wrongs at the hands of the imperial German government, but they desire no reprisal upon the German people, who have themselves suffered all things in this war, which they did not choose. They believe that peace should rest upon the rights of peoples, not the rights of governments—the rights of peoples great or small, weak or powerful—their equal right to freedom and security and self-government, and to a participation upon fair terms in the economic opportunities of the world—the German people of course included if they accept equality and do not seek domination."

President States Test.

"The test, therefore, of every plan of peace is this: Is it based upon the faith of all the peoples involved or merely upon the word of an ambitious and intriguing government, on the one hand, and of a proud, free people, on the other? This is a test which goes to the root of the matter; and it is the test which must be applied.

"The purpose of the United States in this war is known to the whole world—to every people to whom the truth has been permitted to come.
They do not need to be stated again.
We seek no material advantage of any kind. We believe that the intolerable wrongs done in this war by the furious brutal power of the imperial German government ought to be repaired, but not at the expense of the sovereignty of any people—rather a vindication of the sovereignty both of those that are weak and those that are strong. Punitive damages, the dismemberment of empires, the establishment of selfish and exclusive economic uses, we deem inexpedient and in the end more than futile, no proper basis for a peace of any kind, least of all for an enduring peace. That must be based upon justice and fairness and the common rights of mankind.

"We can not take the word of the present rulers of Germany as a guarantee of anything that is to endure, unless explicitly supported by such conclusive evidence of the will and purpose of the German people themselves as the other peoples of the world would be justified in accepting. Without such guarantees, treaties of settlement, agreements for disarmament, covenants to set up arbitration in the place of force, territorial adjustments, reconstructions of small nations, if made with the German government, no man, no nation, could now depend on. We must await some new evidence of the purposes of the great peoples of the Central Powers. God grant it may be given soon and in a way to restore the confidence of all peoples everywhere in the faith of the nations and the possibility of a covenanted peace."

"ROBERT LANSING,

"Secretary of State of the United States of America."

SERVICE PAPER TO BE ISSUED AT CAMP TAYLOR

Washington, Aug. 26.—Earl Adams Clark, of Fountain City, Ind., and Indianapolis, was chosen by Secretary of War Baker to take charge of the publication of a military service paper at the Louisville cantonment.

Clark came to Washington and on his own initiative secured an audience with Secretary Baker when the arrangement was made.

A similar paper is to be published at each of the permanent cantonments. The publication will include army officers' and official bulletins of all kinds bearing on the military movement and also local items of special interest to the troops at the Louisville cantonment.

U. S. TO FAVOR ENLISTED MEN

SOLDIERS FROM RANKS MAY COMPETE FOR OFFICERS' COMMISSIONS.

Washington, Aug. 28.—Enlisted men of the national army, National Guard, and regular army, will be given every opportunity to fit themselves for commissions, it was learned today. This is in line with the fixed policy of the Government to take no more officers or officer candidates from civil life after the second series of officers training camps, now in progress, has been completed. Thereafter all additional officers needed will be found in the ranks of the various branches of the war army.

To carry out this plan, it has virtually been decided to establish an officers school at each of the divisional training camps. Men from the ranks who show special qualifications will be sent to these schools.
With staffs of French and British officers of experience on the firing lines on duty at each camp as advisers, an unusual opportunity for lecture courses will be presented.

Third Camp Series.

The divisional officers' camps will make the third series of such camps arranged by the War Department to provide men to command the enormous forces being raised for the war.
No line commissions will be granted to men from civil life after they are started, except that a few men who were denied admission to the other camps thru loss of their orders in the mail or some other mischance, may be given an opportunity in the third series.

Secretary Baker pointed out to-day, in reply to a question as to whether the European divisional army organization adopted for the war would be continued after the restoration of peace, that with the exception of the officers of the regular army and a few men of the old regular enlisted force whose enlistments may not have expired at that time, the entire war army will pass out of existence.
There is no provision of law for continuing it beyond the end of the war.

Policy To Be Decided Later.

The question of establishing a continuing military policy of universal service has been debated to some extent recently. The impression prevails among many members of Congress, however, that it would be unwise to take up this question now.
If the war is long, it may become necessary to provide for the registration of new classes which reach the military age of the selective service bill each year, and possibly also to exempt men now registered but who may pass beyond the maximum age limit before the war ends.

FOOD INVENTORY STARTS AUGUST 31

HARTFORD AND BOWLING GREEN ON MAP TO BE COVERED BY ENUMERATORS.

Washington, Aug. 26.—Two Kentucky towns, Bowling Green and Hartford, have been chosen as typical of their class in which to conduct the Government's food inventory.

Food stocks held in retail stores of city and rural portions of forty-three counties in various parts of the country will be inventoried August 31 to furnish the basis for an estimate by the Department of Agriculture's Bureau of Markets of the amount of food products in the hands of retail dealers. A detailed survey also will be made in New York City, which is to be handled as a separate problem.

The survey of retail stocks, the plan for which was made public tonight, is one of four branches of the great task of estimating the country's entire stock of food as of August 31, which has been undertaken by the Bureau of Markets for the Department of Agriculture and the Food Administration. Other surveys will cover stocks on farms, in wholesale commercial establishments and storages, and in the homes of the consumers.

Assistance Promised.

Local work will be directed for the bureau by agents of the Bureau of Chemistry and of the State's relations Service, boards of trade, chambers of commerce, retail grocers' associations and Farm Bureau agents and other State, county and city officials have promised their assistance. Blanks for detailed reporting of stock on hand are being distributed locally in cities by local health and police officials under the direction of the Bureau of Chemistry, and in rural communities by county agents and patriotic organizations under the general direction of the State's Relations Service.

Aside from New York, the largest city selected is Cleveland, Ohio. Its county, Cuyahoga, was chosen as centrally located with reference to large industrial centers and as a typical manufacturing and commercial center.

Typical Towns Chosen.

The second group includes the cities of Syracuse, N. Y.; Dallas, Texas, and Altoona, Pa., with its outlying towns of Tyrone and Juniata.
These three are thought to represent conditions as they exist in a city which depends on manufacturing, in one which was a big agricultural back-country and in one which depends on the mining industry.

The grouping, as a whole, is in accordance with population. The first group, represented by Cleveland, is for metropolitan districts with a population of 200,000 or more, the second includes counties with cities of a population of 50,000 to 200,000. The third takes counties with cities, 25-000 to 50,000; the fourth, from 10-000 to 25,000, and so on down to 2-500 and then counties having no city or village of 2,500 population.

In the third group are the cities of Montgomery, Ala.; Topeka, Kas.; Blaghamton, N. Y., and Sacramento, Cal.; the fourth includes Concord, N. H.; Butler Pa.; Jackson, Tenn.; Iowa City, Ia.; and Walla Walla, Wash.; and the fifth, Oneonta, N. Y.; Americus, Ga.; Dekalb, Ill.; Bowling Green, Ky., and Provo, Utah, with their outlying populations.

Group six includes ten counties with cities of from 2,500 to 5,000 and the index cities are Springfield, Vt.; Stroudsburg, Pa.; South Boston, Va.; Allegan, Mich.; Lake Geneva, Wis.; McPherson, Kas.; Marshall, Mo.; Canton, Miss.; Stillwater, Okla., and Marshall, Ore.

The final group, in counties having no towns as large as 2,500, includes fifteen towns, as follows: Eatonton, Ga.; Carthage, N. C.; Seaford, Del.; Rosedale, Ind.; Pembina, N. D.; Marysville, Kas.; Hartford, Ky.; Lawrenceburg, Tenn.; Enterprise, Ala.; Fairhope, Ala.; Rector, Ark.; Maasfield, La.; LaGrange, Tex.; Castle Rock, Col., and Raymond, Wash.

HARTFORD COLLEGE.

School Begins Monday, September, 3 —Outlook Bright.

Hartford College and High School opens its thirty-eighth annual term on Sept. 2nd, with flattering prospects for a splendid school. The faculty this year contains four new members, three of whom are graduates of this school and have, in addition, attended other colleges or universities from two to four years.

Prof. J. F. Bruner, Principal, is a graduate of K. S. U., and has had considerable work in the University of Chicago and several years experience in school work, which eminently qualifies him as head of Hartford's school. Prof. Bruner will be the instructor in Science and German; Prof. Leach, who has been with the school for a number of years will have charge of Mathematics and History; Miss Lelia Glenn, who has been with the school for some time, will have charge of the Latin and English Department; Prof. J. T. Hoagland, Sub-Collegiate Department; Miss Norine Harris Barnett, Grammar Department; Miss Elizabeth Moore, Intermediate Department, and Miss Cliffie Felix, the Primary Department.

Boys' Pig Show.

We will hold our Boys' Annual Pig Show here at Hartford, Friday, September 7, 1917, beginning at 10 a. m.

In this show we will have quite a number of splendid thorough bred pigs, Poland Chinas, Berkshires and Durocs, fed out by the boys in their contest who are members of the Boys' Agricultural Club. These boys started to feeding these pigs May 15th, weighing from 17 to 35 pounds and they are nice ones.

I would like for every one who feels an interest in our boys, both men and women to come and see these pigs and encourage the boys by your presence. Take your boy out of school and bring him with you for it will be a great lesson for him, and it will be time well spent for you.

This will be a good time to buy a good brood sow, one that can be registered, for some of these boys will want to sell theirs and we will offer them for sale that day. Come and be with us and let's have a great day together. W. W. BROWDER, County Agricultural Agent.

COMPLETE CHAOS NEAR FOR RUSSIA

TRANSPORTATION UTTERLY DE-MORALIZED AND MAY CEASE AT ANY TIME.

MORE SACRIFICES URGED

Russian Premier Says Free People To Be Safeguarded At Any Hazard.

Moscow, Aug. 29.—At the third general sitting of the National Conference railroad representatives, including M. Froloff, of the Engineers' Alliance, reported that there existed a state of utter disorganization of transportation which, unless improved, would cease completely by November. The representatives gave warning that the consequences would be terrible both at home and on the front and that the army might turn on the country and commit unexpected excesses.

The extreme demands of the railway workers, the speakers said, played an important part in this dis-organization. They called on all those engaged in the transport services to sacrifice personal interests for those of the country.

M. Grusenberg, speaking as the representatives of the Jews, said that they loved their country notwithstanding their unprecedented persecution under the old regime, and had contributed greatly to the emancipa-tion of the people and the defense against the enemy.

Representatives of Ukraine and of Western or White Russia, said the people were ready to make any sacrifices for the good of the country.
The spokesmen for the Letts declared Courland would never belong to Germany. Delegates representing the Muslim Alliance said all Muslim citizens of Russia fully supported the Provisional Government.

Gen. Grouznoff, former Military Governor of Moscow, told the delegates the chief problem was to save Russia from the enemy and that to this end it was necessary to re-establish army discipline by eliminating politics, strengthening the authority of soldiers' committees to economic functions and giving the Commander-in-Chief opportunity to exercise unreserved authority.

Gen. Alexieff, former Commander-in-Chief, made a long address in which he recounted the history of the Russians' military setback and their causes. He drew contrasts between the army of the old regime, poorly equipped with mechanical resources, but strong in warlike spirit, and the present army, well supplied with food and arms, but completely poisoned and enfeebled by ill interpreted and ill applied doctrines which have been put forward, notably in the famous order of the day No. 1.

These doctrines, he declared, had split the army into two opposite camps, officers and soldiers, which have become almost irreconcilable.
Speaking of committees elected by soldiers of different units, Gen.
Alexieff said they were useful in the army from an economic standpoint.

TWIN DRAFTED, OTHER ENLISTS TO BE NEAR

Los Angeles, Aug. 25.—Harry F. and Herbert N. Langlois, twin brothers, 26 years old, played together when youngsters, studied thru school life together, received their diplomas on the same stage, were partners in the business world and had never been separated a day in their lives when Harry was notified in Los Angeles he had been selected for Uncle Sam's liberty army. Herbert's number was down near the end of the list, but when he heard his brother had to go to war he immediately began settling up his end in the Hughes Arizona Copper Company and announced he would join Harry in the trenches.

"We are not going to let the war separate us now," said the brothers at their home here. "We have never been separated a day, and as we lived together so we would choose death together, if such should be our lot. Neither of us wants exemption.
We are both ready to fight for Uncle Sam and we have no dependents."

FOR A BLEEDING WORLD.

END OF WORLD NEAR, PREDICTED

PRESENT WAR IS PRELUDE TO COMING OF CHRIST, PAS-TOR SAYS.

ARMAGEDDON IS NIGH

Great Battle of All Nations Fast Approaching—World To Be In Ruins.

(By Mark Larkin.)

Los Angeles, Cal., Aug. 23.—The world is coming to an end!

Armageddon, the world battle of all nations, is approaching!

The coming of Christ is near!
Humanity is racing toward destruction!

The earth itself will not be blotted out, however, nor the people who have kept the word of God; but that period of war and chaos which will mark the end of the human race as it now exists has already begun.

The present European war is its prelude and the Armageddon, predicted, in the Bible, will be the finale to present earthly civilization. But out of all this will come a new world wherein will live perfect people un-afflicted by suffering or sin.

These startling statements sum up Pastor Arthur G. Daniels' interpretation of Bible prophecies which he asserts have already begun to be fulfilled. Pastor Daniels comes from Washington, D. C., and is president of the World Conference of Seventh-Day Adventists.

Prelude To Armageddon.

"The present European war is the prelude to Armageddon, which will precede the coming of Christ," says Pastor Daniels. "Bible predictions, written many centuries ago, are now in process of rapid fulfillment. Tho, the great Armageddon is not yet being fought, nor has that awful time of trouble gripped the world, these events are approaching with alarming rapidity. The generation now living is watching the fulfillment as it is told almost hourly in the daily papers.

"The prophet Joel foresaw this time and the tremendously serious events now occurring. He saw the manifestation of the war spirit and the anger of the nations. He heard the universal proclamation of war. He saw such colossal preparations for war that it appeared as if the nations were turning their implements of agriculture into instruments of warfare and destruction. He saw the nations—awakened, aroused, maddened—gathering in the land of Palestine for battle. And there he saw their overthrow and utter destruction. His prophecy should be read with the greatest care by all the world just now."

Pastor Daniels believes that the present war will be followed by a little time of peace; that then the struggle among the nations for world supremacy, and the supreme control of great commercial highways, will be renewed; that this will result in the Armageddon, involving all the nations of the earth.

"The whole world will be thrown into tumult over disputed political questions relating to the Near East," declares Pastor Daniels. "Turkey is to come to her end. First she is to be driven from Constantinople, her present capital. The war now raging in Europe is designed to accomplish this.

Jerusalem As Capital.

"Students of world affairs believe that Turkey will then establish her capital at ancient Jerusalem, in the heart of her Asiatic possessions.
Twenty-four hundred years ago the prophecy of Daniel, xl, 45 and xii, 2, predicted this by saying:

"He (Turkey) shall plant the tabernacles of his palace (his capital) between the seas in the glorious holy mountain (Jerusalem), yet he shall come to his end, and none shall help him. And at that time shall Michael (Christ) stand up, the great 'Prince' * * * and there shall be a time of trouble such as never was since there was a nation * * * and at that time thy people shall be delivered, every one that shall be found written in the book."

"When Turkey is finally overthrown, Christ, the Prince of Peace is to establish his everlasting kingdom. Armageddon is the last act in the drama of human history. It ends with the extermination of the human race, except those who have before found refuge in God, and it leaves the world in utter ruin.

"But that will not be the end of the human race. The reign of sin will be broken and its very existence ended. Then the kingdom of God will be established amongst men."

Moonlight School Session.

The second session of moonlight schools opens September 24. This is for men of the draft age, 21 to 31, that were not called in the first draft and, also, for others who cannot read or write and for any who can read and write but would like to improve their education. A splendid course in agriculture, domestic science and history will also be given. Every district should have a moonlight school and every man and woman in the district should attend. A large class will be more interesting and will encourage the men of draft age who are expected to attend. The next draft may include these men, so now is the time to teach them. Books furnished free for all beginners. All teachers are urged to teach and all citizens to help locate and get the registered men to school.

CORA WILSON STEWART,
President Ky. Literacy Com.
V. O. GILBERT,
State Supt. of Pub. Instruction.

Clear Away The Waste.

Bowel regularity is the secret of good health, bright eyes, clear complexions, and Dr. King's New Life Pills are a mild and gentle laxative that regulates the bowels and relieves the congested intestines by removing the accumulated wastes without griping. Take a pill before retiring and that heavy head, that dull spring fever feeling disappears. Get Dr. King's New Life Pills at your druggist, 25c.

A Mean Advantage.

The "canniness" of the Scotch people is aptly illustrated in the following:

The other day two boys of about 12 years of age quarreled and finished up with blows. In the tussle one of the combatants got knocked down, and while still on the ground he queried:

"Wad you hit a chap when he's doon?"

"Na," gallantly responded the victor.

"Ah, weel," quoth the vanquished yet cautious youngster, "I'll be here till ye gang awa'."—Tit-Bits.

TEUTONS SCORN SAMMY BRAVERY

"FIGHT? NO!" PRISONERS SAY
—EXPERIENCE OF U. S. BOY IN FRANCE.

Los Angeles, Aug. 23.—When Yankee-manned guns get going in France, and Yankee soldiers in turn receive their baptism of fire, the Germans will soon learn whether "Americans are too cowardly to fight."

B. F. Marsh, Los Angeles boy and sergeant in a Canadian regiment "somewhere in France," in a letter sent here, reciting some of his war experiences, tells how German prisoners taken in a recent British smash, when asked what they thought about the United States entering the war, said: "Money for Allies, yes, at interest. Food, yah—at a profit—it they can get it across. Fight? Newer! They are too cowardly to fight."

"The answer," says Sergt. Marsh, "is for two men to enlist where one is called. That is the only argument that will penetrate the Hunnish cranium," he adds.

Endured Snares of Ignorant.

"I didn't mean to start a recruiting speech, but after nearly two years of front-line work over here, enduring the snares of the ignorant and equally maddening polite inquiries of the educated as to what might be expected of an American army in modern warfare, I am naturally rejoiced that the chance has come and naturally anxious that my own people should more than make good."

Sergt. Marsh tells of his enlistment as an American in 1914, instead of giving Canadian citizenship, and of his troubles in England, where he was first suspected of being a spy, and continues:

"For the past ten months I have been in French mortars. It is very interesting work and far from monotonous. We are styled mostly by our modest selves, the 'Snail Club,' 'Rejected Lovers,' etc., which is mostly hosh, of course.

Slightly Wounded.

"I was slightly wounded some weeks ago by a shell that hit beside me. Fritz should have scored a hit, but my luck was in.

"After the last big smash I had the opportunity of hurried conversation with German prisoners as they marched thru their captured lines to the safety zone behind. They were tired, muddy, many wounded and utterly dejected. At my 'Wie geht's landsman?' their heads would come around with a jerk, and voluble German and broken English voices assured me that it was 'Sehr gut,' to be a prisoner and out of hell for good.

"But when I asked them what they thought of the United States' action in declaring war they would spit con-temptuously."

BLAST RESULT OF PLOT IS REPORT

MARE ISLAND NAVY YARD EX-PLOSION DELIBERATELY PLANNED.

DANIELS HAS REPORT

Findings of Board Unanimous That No One Named As Guilty Suspect.

Washington, Aug. 23.—The explosion at Mare Island Navy Yard in July, killing five and injuring more than thirty, is pronounced in an official report made public today by Secretary Daniels to have been the deliberate act of someone unknown, and not an accident.

Secretary Daniels today made public a synopsis of the report made after investigation by the Bureau of Ordnance and Navigation and the Judge Advocate-General of the Navy.
All those branches of the service agreed that there had been no "hampering instructions or restrictive directions of the method of investigation."

It was the Mare Island explosion investigation which led to the recent bitter controversy between Secretary Daniels and the Navy League, which eliminated in Mr. Daniels' closing all relations between the naval establishment and the league.

Breaks With League.

In a statement recently, the ac-knowledgeed purpose of which was to force publicity of the investigation, the league declared that it had been informed of evidence that a time fuse had been found leading to the black powder magazine in which the explosion occurred, showing a criminal conspiracy, and that the investigation was being hampered by powerful labor influences.

Secretary Daniels hotly denounced the charge that any influence was holding up the investigation and cut all connections with the league. As to the truth of the charge that a fuse had been discovered, Mr. Daniels said the report on the investigation was not then available.

The synopsis signed by all the investigators says:

"A careful reading of orders creating this board and the record of daily proceedings clearly indicate absence of any hampering instructions or restrictive direction as to the method of investigation. The board's inquiry was conducted with the utmost latitude and thoroughness.

The board found that the explosion occurred at 7:55 a. m., July 9, 1917, and was confined to building No. 49, known as the black powder magazine. This building was a modern structure built especially for black powder storage. There were no electricity lines into the building, no telephone or telegraph wires; no windows or other openings with the exception of the regulation magazine doors. Under the existing rules and regulations, access to this building was restricted to comparatively few authorized persons.

"The only person seen to enter this building the morning of the explosion was Ordinance Man Neil C.
Damstedt, a trusted employee of twenty-one years continuous magazine service. Damstedt, according to the testimony, unlocked and opened the magazine door about thirty-seconds previous to the explosion, and was probably in the act of entering the building when the explosion occurred. Damstedt was killed.

"The board, in its findings, states it is of the opinion that Damstedt was in no way implicated in the explosion and that the testimony and attending circumstances do not in any way implicate any ammunition depot employee, or any member of ammunition depot guard.

Blame Blamed, Relief.

"Further, the board states that after having carefully considered all testimony and attending circumstances it is the unanimous opinion that the explosion was not an accident, but was due to the deliberate act of some person or persons unknown. The board, however, was unable to form an opinion as to the exact method employed by the party or parties gui-ty of having destroyed this magazine, or such evidence if any existed, was destroyed in the explosion.

"Every effort is being made to apprehend the guilty parties and to definitely ascertain the exact manner in which this destructive explosion was accomplished.

The Appearance Of Radium.
The Geological Survey, Department of the Interior, has received numerous inquiries about the appearance of radium, many of which seem to have been prompted by carelessly written stories, appearing in periodicals of the poorer class, that tell of remarkable finds of nearly pure radium.

Radium is a metal, and has a white metallic luster; it has been isolated only once or twice, and few people have seen it. Radium is ordinarily obtained in the form of salts, and is usually so sold and used. These salts are all white or nearly white substances whose appearance is no more remarkable than that of common salt or baking powder. Radium is found in nature in quantities so exceedingly small that it is never visible even when the material is examined with a powerful microscope.
Ordinarily radium ore carries only a small fraction of a grain of radium per ton of material, and radium will never be found in large masses because it is formed by the decay of uranium, a process that is wonderfully slow, and radium itself decays and changes to other elements so rapidly that it is impossible for it to accumulate naturally in visible masses. Radium and radium minerals are not generally luminescent.
Tubes containing radium glow from impurities present which the radiations from the radium cause to give light.

Minerals that carry radium are fairly easy to determine, for they affect photographic films in the same way as ordinary light, and they can also be identified by their effect upon an electroscope.

Summer Complaint.

During the hot weather of the summer months some member of almost every family is likely to be troubled with an unnatural looseness of the bowels, and it is of the greatest importance that this be treated promptly which can only be done when the medicine is kept at hand. Mrs. F. F.
Scott, Scottsville, N. Y., states, "I first used Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy as much as five years ago. At that time I had a severe attack of summer complaint and was suffering intense pain. One dose relieved me. Other members of my family have since used it with like results."

FEW MEN DESIRED IN CAMP SEPT. 5

ACCOMMODATIONS FOR ONLY 5 PER CENT OF THOSE AC-CEPTED.

Washington, Aug. 23.—Provost Marshal General Crowder sent to Governors of States today an order changing the proportion of the various States' quota of men, selected for the national army, that are required to be furnished on certain dates. The new order calls for five per cent of each State's quota to report at cantonments September 5, forty per cent on September 19, forty per cent on October 3, and the remaining fifteen per cent as soon thereafter as practicable.

Reasons for the change were given by Gen. Crowder as follows:

"In announcing the decision to mobilize only five per cent of the national army, September 5 instead of thirty per cent, the opportunity is taken to give to local and district boards the credit that is due them for the overwhelming amount of work they have accomplished in scrutinizing the thousands of cases that it was necessary for them to examine in order to have thirty per cent of their quota ready on September 5.

"Reports received from practically every State in the Union show that every State would have ready much more than thirty per cent of its quota September 5, and the majority of them would have been ready with their entire quota on that date. This service has required a month of the most exacting work on the part of boards. This work was consummated under adverse conditions and is in large part uncompensated.

"It stands as one of the most significant expressions of substantial patriotism and devotion on the part of 15,000 men selected from among the best citizens of the country."

Stomach and Liver Troubles.
No end of misery and actual suffering is caused by disorders of the stomach and liver, and may be avoided by the use of Chamberlain's Tablets.
Give them a trial. They only cost a quarter.

ed grandstand that she dared not ride the man-killer, the woman mounted Gentle Annie amid great cheering by the cowboys who had tanned her when she first declined to ride the animal. Mrs. Wright succeeded in subduing her mount from its furious bucking, but Gentle Annie started on a gallop toward a corral.

Before the cowboys, who immediately started in pursuit, could catch the fleeing horse, the animal plunged thru a wire fence, stumbled and slid along the ground with Mrs.

As it rose it stepped on the woman's

Catarrhal Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure catarrhal deafness, and that is by a constitutional remedy.
Catarrhal Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Many cases of deafness are caused by catarrh, which is an inflamed condition of the mucous surface. Hall's Catarrh Medicine acts thru the blood on the mucous surface of the ear.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Catarrhal Deafness that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Medicine. Circulate free. All Druggists, etc.

War Planes and Weapons on View At Kentucky's Great State Fair

Remarkable Features of Festival Week Secured by Energy and Enterprise of Hard Working Fair Officials

HON. MAT S. COHEN,
President Kentucky State Fair.

FOUNT T. KREMER, Secretary Kentucky State Fair.

THE Kentucky State Fair belongs to the people, is of the people and for the people, but credit for this great achievement, which during a period of fourteen years has meant much to the commonwealth at large and which now bears vital relation to the welfare of the state, belongs in fullest measure to two officials, the commissioner of agriculture and the State Fair secretary.

Upon the shoulders of these two men falls the burden of responsibility for the gigantic undertaking of summing up in one festival week the agricultural and live stock industries, accomplishments and achievements of the entire state for the year, and both must be possessors of abilities beyond the ordinary measure of man.

Commissioner Cohen's Fine Record.

Commissioner of Agriculture Mat S. Cohen steps into the arena of State Fair accomplishment this year with the poise and assurance of a prior year's unequalled and universally applauded success in the handling of his colossal task and with the present satisfaction of knowing that he has succeeded in adding to the fifteenth annual Kentucky State Fair, to be held in Louisville the week of Sept. 10, the most remarkable features ever associated with a State Fair. Spectacular among his accomplishments is the securing of the $100,000 stake for live galloping saddle horses and the unprecedented increase to $1,000 in premiums for county exhibits. Both these brilliant feats are in direct line with the appeal of the Washington government for a stimulation and increased activity in stock raising and food production and followed his several consultations at Washington with national bodies in regard to keying up the state to its highest point of output both in food as well as stock. From these meetings resulted the government's decision to get behind the State Fair with exhibits which will double its already mammoth list of attractions.

Of keenest interest to the public in general will doubtless be the governmental showing on manikins of the arms, uniforms and paraphernalia of all the nations now engaged in the great European war, together with war planes and weapons of destruction. Government officers say that the country has been combing for cavalry and artillery horses, and Commissioner Cohen's great plan and splendid achievement in securing for the State Fair the $100,000 stake, as announced, comes at a psychological time and is expected to have a saving stimulus on

In contrast to the country wide scope of the commissioner's activities may be cited the fact that he has likewise brought the interests of the State Fair to an intensive point by placing each county agent on the advisory board of the fair and thus securing the personal, individual and enthusiastic support of every Kentucky county as a unit.

Kremer an Efficient Secretary.

Fount T. Kremer, who was elected Kentucky State Fair secretary at the beginning of the present year upon the lamented death of former Secretary W. J. Gooch, while newly vested with secretarial title and duties, is by no means a novice in secretarial experience, having been the "power behind" preceding Kentucky State Fair secretaries for the past eight years in the comparatively inconspicuous but immensely important post of active manager and director of finances for the entire vast institution.

To the lay mind the magnitude of this undertaking is impossible of conception, and only those concerned in the melange of detail, multitude of demands and urgency of action swirling around the operative forces of the fair can grasp the significance of this experience. As no man occupies a distinctive position without a training which has consciously or unconsciously fitted him for the duties of his post, so Mr. Kremer's entire career has been one of preparation for the brilliant and efficient handling of the task before him. In his early manhood he saw long service in important positions with the Louisville and Nashville railroad general offices and with the law and equity division of the Jefferson circuit court, thereby absorbing a grasp of detail, knowledge of law and familiarity with finance which grounded him well in knowledge vital to the handling of the fair. In fact, it was this unusual all round ability, demonstrated year after year to the state board of agriculture, that prompted Mr. Kremer's election by the board as secretary to the fair. To the agricultural element his selection was enthusiastically satisfying from the fact that Mr. Kremer has been a practical farmer for the past twelve years, owning and at present residing upon and actively operating at Shively, Ky., one of the prettiest and most prosperous farms in the state.

PRIZE LIST OF $1,000 FOR STATE FAIR COUNTY EXHIBITS

Through the efforts of Commissioner of Agriculture Mat S. Cohen the agricultural products of Kentucky will occupy a very conspicuous and distinctive position at the fifteenth annual Kentucky State Fair, to be held in Louisville the week of Sept. 10. This year the prize list for county exhibits has been placed at the remarkable figure of $1,000, and in consequence the attention of the entire agricultural interests of the state will be centered on this particular feature of the big annual celebration. The prize list was announced the first part of the year as reaching the sum of $700. This sum was increased recently through the efforts of Mr. Wood Crady of the Louisville Chemical works and of the agricultural committee of the board of trade. He induced the board of trade members to vote an additional sum of $300 and his item to add another $100 to this amount, thus securing for the county exhibitors of the state the unprecedented sum total of $1,000. As the list now stands the county winning first prize will receive $400 in cash, the county winning second prize will receive $250, and the winner of third prize will receive $150. This list the three prizes from $250, $150 and $100 to the above figures and gives to the Kentucky State Fair the largest prize list for county exhibits ever offered by any state fair in the United States with the exception of Dallas, Tex., which is the largest and richest fair in the country and has been in existence twice as long as the Kentucky State Fair. In addition to the cash awards for the best county exhibits Colonel B. H. Taylor, Jr., of Frankfort, Ky., will give to the county winning first prize a handsome sterling silver cup, which will be known as the "Old Taylor cup" and which will be worth $100.

To the man or woman working up interest in the county exhibit winning a prize will be given a "booster's award" of $50 for the representative of the county winning first prize, $25 for the representative of the county winning second prize and $15 to the representative of the third prize winner.

For catalogue or information address, Fount T. Kremer, Secretary Kentucky State Fair, Suite 604 Republic Building, Louisville, Ky.

Make your plans to visit the fifteenth annual Kentucky State Fair, to be held in Louisville the week of Sept. 10. This is "bring your list" toward stimulating and encouraging agriculture and stock raising in accordance with the government's call.

WAR MUST BE WON THIS YEAR

EXPERT SAYS BEAT GERMANY
THIS FALL OR FIGHT UNTIL 1919.

Washington, Aug. 25.—"Germany's shell will be cracked this fall by continued allied hammering along the whole Western front, or the war will go another year and a half—until the summer of 1919."

This is the prediction of a high navy official in close touch with plans for one tremendous effort to crush Germany this fall.

America, unable to help with many men as yet, will back up the English, French and Italian armies with vast stocks of munitions for the next three months.

His reason why victory must come this fall or not till 1919 is:

England, France and Italy are at the peak of their strength. After this summer's campaign, their armies will diminish rather than increase.

If, with all our support in supplies, the Allies can not beat down German resistance this fall, it is plain they of themselves, will never be able to beat it down.

That means there is little likelihood of success until the United States can place her full strength on the battle front—not before the spring of 1919!

Germany to date, this official states, has lost 3,000,000 men in killed and permanently disabled. The loss of another 1,000,000 men, the Allies believe, will mark the limit of sacrifice the German people will concede to their warlords.

The problem, then, is either to break this fall thru the German lines and force an entire readjustment of fighting conditions, or slowly to whittle down another 1,000,000 of the Kaiser's men.

JAPAN LOYAL TO U. S. NOW AND AFTER WAR

Washington.—Japan will stand by the United States to the end of the war—and afterward.

She will ask no money; no material; no equipment.

She will exchange pledges of national, lasting friendship.

She will prove that Germany, instead of seeking to make an ally of her, has been trying by propaganda to cause rupture between Japan and the United States.

These are the outstanding aims of the forthcoming visit of the Japanese mission, which is expected to arrive here soon, as they were outlined today by a source close to the Japanese embassy. He made these points:

1. The mission is one of sentiment.

2. Japan, unlike some of the other belligerents, is not in the slightest need of assistance, either financial or material. The mission will convince the Washington Government of this.

3. Documentary evidence will be produced to show that Germany has spent vast sums in Japan and in the United States to create ill feeling and suspicion on both sides and bring about a break.

4. Japan will help the United States to the utmost extremity during the war—and after it. The mission hopes to take steps to obliterate international troublemakers.

German propagandists have been unusually busy in the Oriental nation, but their activities now have been put off. The Germans, it was explained, always have predicted that as soon as the United States became involved in an open break with Mexico or any European power, Japan would throw her weight in the balance against the United States.

FIRST TROOPS TO MOVE ON SEPTEMBER 5

Frankfort, Ky., Aug. 25.—Governor Stanley today had a communication from Provost Marshal General Crowder, to the effect that Milton H. Smith, of Louisville, has been appointed to represent the railroad association in working out plans for the movement of Kentucky's draft army to the cantonment at Louisville. It is probable that Mr. Smith will come here the first of next week to confer with Governor Stanley concerning this matter.

The first movement of the troops will take place on September 5, when one-fifth of the army will be taken to Louisville. It will take the railroad companies five days to move the men, conveying one-fifth of the army each day to the camp. There are 14,236 men in Kentucky's draft army.

The men will be given tickets and tagged, each man to wear his tag in his buttonhole. When the troops reach camp, they are to line up beside the car in which they were conveyed until federal authorities tell them where and how to proceed.

Chronic Constipation.

It is by no means an easy matter to cure this disease, but it can be done in most instances by taking Chamberlain's Tablets and complying with the plain printed directions that accompany each package.

PRESIDENT RULES MARRIED MEN EXEMPT

Washington, Aug. 25.—President Wilson today ruled that wives of men selected in the draft should not, because they had employment before marriage, be thrown upon their own resources or upon the charity of their own or their husband's parents for support.

He ordered that all men upon whose labors their wives or children depend entirely for support should be exempted. His action was taken in response to Nation-wide protests against the harsh interpretation placed on the draft law by the Provost Marshal General's office that a woman whose parents or whose husband's parents were able and willing to support her and her children, or who was qualified to gain her own support, should be thrown on these resources and her husband sent to war.

The President's orders were contained in a letter to Secretary of War Baker. Immediately on their receipt, the Secretary got into touch with Provost Marshal General Crowder.

TREASURY WIRE $8,000,000 FOR EXPORT TO JAPAN

New York, Aug. 25.—The United States sub-treasury here transferred $8,000,000 in gold by telegraph to San Francisco today for export to Japan. This is the largest single withdrawal of gold for shipment to that country since the movement began to assume important proportions about three months ago. It is estimated that since last May an aggregate of from $50,000,000 to $60,000,000 in gold has been transferred to Japan.

Ask Anyone Who Has Used It.

There are families who always aim to keep a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Diarrhoea Remedy in the house for use in case it is needed, and find that it is not only a good investment but saves them no end of suffering. As to its reliability, ask anyone who has used it.

Free? Russia is reaping the benefits of a certain kind of socialism. Who wants it?

Lower the prices and there will not be so much necessity for taxing war profits. Then the people may have a better chance to live.

With the licensing or restriction of shipments of food and other supplies to foreign, neutral countries, Germany is likely to scratch the bottom of the bucket a bit earlier.

It has been suggested that T. R. head an army of 100,000 men and go to Russia. We are not expecting that Teddy will be shelved in that manner—just now the bear's teeth are on the wrong end.

Hartford is on the map as one of fifteen small towns within Uncle Sam's domain to enjoy the distinction of a food survey or inventory. This date has been designated for commencing the survey.

State Examiner and Inspector, Nat. H. Sewell in a report says, that many state employees overcharge and pad their expense accounts, tho he does not give any names. Don't suppose it is any of Stanley's Fire Puffers Out.

In the food census about to be made, the queens of all of Hartford's larders and pantries are more than likely to be called upon for an inventory and the ladies of this town should arrange in advance to make the work easy, simple and quickly disposed of.

We were just beginning to need rats and mice and are writing this with a shudder. We are not expecting that Teddy will be shelved in that manner—just now the bear's teeth are on the wrong end.

It may be a wise mode of procedure, to take the county officials and convert them into draft or exemption boards, but it strikes us as being a hardship altogether uncalculated for, especially in some instances. At this particular season of the year Sheriffs are, or should be, busily engaged in collecting the revenue due the counties and State. This enforced absence of the Sheriff from his office and the duties connected therewith, works a great inconvenience, not only to himself, but County Treasuries as well. The most inconvenient perhaps is, or may be, occasioned by the enforced absence of the Clerk of the County Court from his office. The average County Clerk in this State figures on running the Clerk's office with one or perhaps two deputies. It takes months to train one for the various duties of a competent deputy County Court Clerk. Let something happen to the chief deputy, as has been the case in this county, and the Clerk is simply up against it, so to speak. The chief deputy, Miss Woerner, has been sick for a number of days and out of the office. Mr. Blankenship, the Clerk, so we are informed, has repeatedly tried to get off of the local board, but it appears that the powers above will not release him, so he is compelled to give his time to the duties of the Exemption Board, when it is a matter of the most urgent importance that he be in the Clerk's office. As we said, it may be a wise and just course to pursue, but we can't just exactly see it in that light. We believe that the county officials should be left free and unhampered to perform the duties for which the people elected them.

ONE DEAD, ONE DYING, AS RESULT OF SHOOTING

Hickman, Ky., Aug. 25.—As the result of a shooting affair that occurred late today, Virgil Brown is reported dead and his cousin, Herbert Brown, of this city, is dying. The affair occurred at Bondurant, eight miles below here. Herbert Brown is the son of Mrs. Charles Brown. The family is widely known here. Robert Miller, who did the shooting, is reported seriously cut. Sheriff Huddleston and Deputy Thomas have gone to the scene.

SPEEDS THRU FOG TO ESCAPE SUBMARINE

An Atlantic Port, Aug. 25.—By running at full speed into the thick of a fog, a British steamer, in today from a foreign port, escaped a German submarine which had pursued her for several hours while trying to get close enough to discharge a torpedo. The captain of the steamer reported that the U-boat took up the chase shortly after his vessel got away from port and was gradually cutting down the distance between them when he reached the edge of the fog. Accepting the lesser of two dangers, the captain gave orders to send the ship ahead and for an hour or more, with the siren silent, she sailed along with the fog so thick that there would have been no time to swing about had another craft appeared 100 yards away.

RESOLUTIONS ON DEATH OF LONIE JOHNSON

Whereas, Lonie (Wit) Johnson, who was a member of Hartford Camp No. 202, W. O. W., died August 23, 1917, age 28. Joined this Camp in 1914, and lived a true and loyal Sovereign until called to the Sovereign Camp above.

Resolved, That in the death of Sovereign Johnson this Camp has lost one of its best members and his place around the Camp in the forest is vacant, but his memory will be cherished by the remaining Sovereigns. Be it further

Resolved, That we point the family of Sovereign Johnson to the great Sovereign of all, and try to emulate his good deeds.

Resolved, That these resolutions be published in both county papers, and a page of the minutes be set apart for a copy, and a copy be sent to the family.

VIRGINIA IS BIGGEST SOAPSTONE PRODUCER

Soapstone is a massive rock so rich in talc as to have a soapy feel. It is more extensively quarried and used in the United States than in any other country. Its most important application, depending on its resistance to heat, acids, and electricity, is in the manufacture of laundry tubs, laboratory table tops, tanks, sinks, fire hoods, and switchboards, and in general insulation. Besides many smaller uses growing out of its slow radiation of heat. There was a small production of soapstone in California in 1916, according to the United States Geological Survey, Department of the Interior, but almost the entire output of the United States came from Virginia, where there were four producing quarries. The total yield for 1916, including that of California, was 19,652 short tons.

ALLIES ABILITY DEPRESSES HUNS

BELIEF IS, THAT KAISER WILL NOT BE ABLE TO GO THRU ANOTHER WINTER.

England and France believe Germany will be unable to endure another winter of war. The correspondent of the Sun, who was recently in France, has seen proof that the entente allies are magnificently equipped for winter operations, and do not intend to allow the Germans any respite but intend to make the winter's hardships doubly severe for them by continuing the present campaign.

The desperate state that Germany has reached, not only in regard to continuing the war, but also the reconstruction of her commerce and industries after the war, was unwittingly exposed recently through the unintentional laxity of the censors. The situation revealed is briefly this:

When the Reichstag on July 19 adopted the resolution declaring for peace without indemnities and without annexation, it spoke with the voice of the great majority of the nation crying for peace, suffering bitterly and dreading another winter of war with all its horrors, cold, hunger and nakedness. It spoke also for the army which is desperately tired of fighting and is constantly losing battles because of the belief of the soldiers that the enemy now, by means of superior machinery, is slaughtering Germans with comparative safety. The army is becoming dangerously infected with the feeling that it no longer has a fair chance, because the fight has become one of German blood and muscle against the allies' steel and iron.

Peace Conditions Told Chancellor.

"Chancellor Michaelis knew that the Reichstag represented both the people and the army and he felt compelled to accept the principle of the peace resolution, but when the jingoes learned what he had done they became violently angry and the chancellor was told that he must recant because peace without annexations or indemnities spelled ruin for Germany.

"It was pointed out that Germany had spent half of her national wealth in the war and had lost all claim to the good-will of mankind, and with it the markets of the world. Germany could not rehabilitate herself without huge indemnities; all supplies of manufacturers' materials were exhausted; there was neither money nor credit nor goods to exchange for new supplies.

"The country's fiscal system was based, when the empire plunged in hostilities, on the plan to finance the war through loans, and at the end of a short, sharp struggle, to exact immense indemnities or territories sufficient to pay the loans. This explains why Germany has paid practically all of her war costs up to this time from the proceeds of loans. It was expected that the war would last only a few months; then, following a complete victory, the indemnities would flow in and more than discharge the loans, while the colonies and trade of her crushed enemies would be seized and Germany would be enriched.

Want Victory Regardless of Life. "Every day makes the situation more desperate and depresses more deeply upon the nation's nerves the absolute necessity of forcing a victory, no matter at what cost of human life, in order to exact the indemnities that might make economic rehabilitation possible.

"Realizing fully this situation, the rulers of Germany compelled Chancellor Michaelis to repudiate his acceptance of the Reichstag resolution. His action promptly caused such an explosion of popular wrath from the peace-hungry people that the chancellor had to hedge and promise that he would accept the Reichstag platform. Now neither side is sure of his real intention. Probably he himself is equally uncertain and is drifting, awaiting events, which daily are weighing more and more against him."

SALE

Saturday, September 15, 1917, at 1 o'clock p. m., on Midway Farm, 3 miles South of Hartford; 3 miles West of Beaver Dam; 3 miles North of Melbury. I will offer for sale 45 head of Southdown Sheep to the highest bidder. The sheep will be sold in bunches of 5 and 10 head, also in a flock. These sheep should not leave the county, as they are good breeding stock, and we are short of sheep in the county. When sold is 75c per pound and bums 15c per pound, somebody will sure make some money to buy this stock.

I will also sell one good 4-year-old Bull. This bull is scarce and of good disposition and good breeder.

Terms made known on day of sale. Remember the date and be sure to be there.

U-BOAT CAPTAIN KILLS FIANCEE

SINKS VESSEL NOT KNOWING THAT SWEETHEART WAS ABOARD.

New York, Aug. 25.—How a Captain of a German U-boat unwittingly killed his Norwegian sweetheart, her father and brother, who were on the ship he torpedoed, is a story told by survivors of another sinking, that of the American bark Artensius.

Capt. Wimborn, of the Artensius, knew the U-boat commander before the war and on his last trip when he was torpedoed he was taken before the chief of the submarine. They recognized each other and when Capt. Wimborn asked his friend what had become of the girl he was engaged to, the German burst into tears.

The U-boat commander took him to his cabin, showed him a half hundred photographs of the girl and then told the story. A short time previous it had been necessary for him to fire a shell at a small schooner before ripping it to pieces with a torpedo. The schooner happened to be that of the girl's father, with her father, brother and herself on board. A splinter from the shell killed the girl; her father was also slain by the shot and when her brother, recognized his sister's lover, he reproached him and then, on attacking him, was knocked into the sea by a German sailor, and did not reappear.

In addition to the pictures, the commander's cabin was filled with tokens of the girl he himself had killed and to whom he had written a poem, the translation of which follows:

Dear soul, oh, whither have you fled?
The world was mine when you were near;
Raise my bowed heart, you are not dead;
We'll meet again or heaven itself were dear.

Capt. Wimborn's story has not been confirmed from other sources.

BEEF SUGAR MEN WILL CUT PRICE

Washington, Aug. 26.—An agreement by the country's best sugar producers to limit the price of their production so as to effect a reduction of about one and one-half cents a pound in the present price of sugar was announced tonight by the Food Administration, with notice to the public that this should mean a saving of $20,000,000 between now and the first of next year. It also was announced that the wholesale grocers had agreed to limit distribution charges to prevent exorbitant charges.

In the near future the Administration will state the price at which the wholesale sugar should be delivered at large consuming centers. The best sugar price fixed is the equivalent of 7.25, cane sugar basis, f. o. b. seaport receiving ports.

ROBERT J. DUFF.

Robert J. Duff, who died at his home in Sulphur Springs on August 17th, was 79 years old and past, having been born on December 25, 1837, near Chattanooga, Tenn., from whence he came to this state with a relative while a mere boy, his father and mother having died when he was quite small.

Deceased is survived by his widow, Mrs. Martha, and three daughters, Mrs. G. L. Johnston, Elizabethtown; Mrs. D. H. Godsey, Narrows, and Mrs. Eliza Magan, Olaton. Also seven sons, Thomas T. and Robert T., of Louisville, Ollie W., Trisler; Dr. J. A. Dundee; U. P. and Otis, of Sulphur Springs and Romney R., of Indianapolis, Ind. Deceased served thru the war of 1861 to 65 as a member of Co. F, 17th Ky. Inf. He was married in early life to Miss Josephine Wedding, who died in 1865. He remarried in 1870 to Mrs. Martha Kynard, who survives. To this latter union all but one of the ten children were born. Mr. Duff united with the M. E. church in 1872, of which he was a member until death.

There was no better citizen in Ohio county than Uncle Rob Duff, as he was generally called by those who knew him best. In politics, he had always been a Republican and the latch string to his door has been pulled more often perhaps, than any within the whole locality where he resided, he being very hospitable and of the gentlemanly qualities.

EMPLOYEES AWAIT DEATH IN JUNGLE

San Francisco, Aug. 26.—Bradley Jones and Daniel M. Wise, scientists and explorers for the Carnegie Institute, who left this country last year for South America, were awaiting death in the heart of a jungle near the head of the Amazon River on June 29, according to a letter which reached here to-day. The message, mailed at Lima, Peru, gave no indication of the fate that met the two men.

STRAY STREAKS.

(By Fluke McFluke.)

"Ham" Likens says he dreads for the date to come when he must get winter housings for those feet of his.

Our wife don't have much trouble keeping us in nights, due she says, to the dangerous and snakey appearance of the town's side walks. (Not a paid ad.)

Notice where Lee Summerman has advertised for a pair of lost, Weed auto chains. Lee perhaps auto advertise for change lost to Weideman.

Our wife says when those food fellows come surveying at our house it may be by bounds, but she'll be switched if there'll be any means about it, as there hasn't been anything but a little bacon-but on the place for more than two months.

That ham story circulated by Alec Porter, some time since, has probably gotten to the authorities at Washington, and now this whole community is subjected to a food investigation. Thusly do we suffer for the sins of others.

We notice where an old fiddlers' contest was held a day or so ago in Hopkins county. They offered a prize for the best fiddler in the most different positions, the best fiddler with the greatest number of instruments and also for the ugliest fiddler. Don't see why in the dickens M. Bean didn't enter. We think we see where Marvin could have pulled down at least one of the prizes.

That watermelon Lute Easterdy left in the office the other day, that had grown within a glass, ex-whiskey jug, must have the whiskey restored to the jug in order to preserve it here at The Republican office, so I heard the boss tell Lute. He further said he thought the melon would be perfectly safe that way, since Charlie King was not here any more.

Speaking of Mr. Easterdy's melon in the jug, we overheard the boss ax Lute how he guessed the said melon found its way into the jug and Lute says he reckoned some of his neighbors hid the jug in the weeds in his melon patch, not knowing it was there, and the little melon seeking moisture one evening, as some men do, just went into the jug, got tight and the result was it couldn't get out. A very plausible explanation.

We saw a bunch of society ladies down near the river the other evening with bathing suits on their arms, which bothered us quite a bit, but after making inquiry of two or three smart fellows we met, decided, that in all probability, the ladies were going to take a bath, no, going swimming I believe it was.

Farm Department

The Home Demonstrator Pays Her Way.

In a Tennessee county a home demonstrator was employed, the county paying half her salary. At the end of the first year's work the county court was wrestling with the misuse of a lot of money voted for roads and trying to hold down the tax rate. As legislative bodies are so fond of doing, it began its economizing by cutting off the appropriations for constructive work, the ones that bring in the highest returns. By a narrow majority the home demonstrator's $400 was refused. The people of the little county town had seen the value of the work, however, and speedily raised the money necessary to secure the government appropriation and keep the demonstrator.

This county is largely mountainous. Often the agent has no means of transportation. Sometimes she walks as far as ten miles to attend a meeting. Now the farmers of the county are making up money to buy a car for her.

The county farm agent and the county agent, when competent persons, pay their way many times over. The people they serve hear abundant testimony to the fact.—Southern Agriculturist.

Raise Some Chickens This Fall.

There should be a big crop of fall chickens raised this year. It is time now to be at work. Few poultry raisers have much success with chicks hatched during the very hot weather, but chicks hatched next month can be successfully handled and made to pay.

On the average farm the chickens largely live on what would otherwise be wasted. Therefore, the raising of a few more chickens is a positive addition to the country's food supply. It is also a positive addition to the contents of the farmer's or the farm woman's pocketbook.

Raise some chickens this fall.—Southern Agriculturist.

An Increased Meat Supply.

To stimulate quick increases in the meat supply, the United States Department of Agriculture will extend throughout the country the pig clubs which have been operated in 15 States and the poultry clubs which have been operated in 9 States. In addition to the 32 specialists in hog production and 32 specialists in poultry production who thus will be placed in the field at once, an additional specialist on hog production will be placed in each of the five principal hog raising States.

Hogs and poultry have been singled out as live stock on which special efforts will be concentrated in the campaign for increased meat production, because they give the quickest returns. The various pig and poultry clubs have already interested in the rearing of these animals large numbers of young people who otherwise would not contribute to an increase in food production.

Fattening Pigs.

There is no advantage in skipping the pig when it comes time to fatten him, the United States Department of Agriculture points out. During the growing period of his life, pastures with little grain were in order, for scale and constitution were the main objects to be obtained. The last few weeks before butchering the idea is to lay on a good covering of fat, to increase the proportion of high-priced lard, and to add tenderness and palatability to the meat. A fat hog sells to much better advantage on the market for these very reasons.

To add this fat rapidly and most economically, we must feed an abundance of grain. The self-feeder is simply a device to keep before the pigs a constant supply of feed, in order that they may eat of such feeds in such quantities as they desire.

Results Obtained With a Self-Feeder.
A brief resume of results obtained by experiments with over 275 hogs, part of them self-fed and the balance hand fed in the best possible manner, shows:

First, that in comparison with the hand-fed pigs, the self-fed pigs ate grain 15 per cent more rapidly;

Second, that they gained weight 25 per cent more rapidly;

And last, that they consumed only 92 per cent as much grain in gaining 100 pounds.

This shows three very definite advantages in the use of the self-feeder. Pigs fed in this manner will eat more grain per day than under any other method of feeding. This maximum consumption is not wasteful of grain; in fact it saves grain, for an increase of 15 per cent in the rate of eating caused an increase of 25 per cent in the rate of gaining.

The object in feeding is to put on fat as rapidly and with as little grain as possible. A method which will increase the rate of gaining 25 per cent and at the same time decrease by 8 per cent the grain required to produce a unit of gain is certainly worthy of consideration.

How To Use Self-Feeder.

Fill part of the self-feeder with corn or similar carbonaceous feed and the other part with protein supplement.

Make a Fit Seed Bed For Wheat.
"Make the seed bed fit for the seed. Do not 'inter' wheat worth $3 or $4 a bushel for seed purposes in a condition of soil impossible for germination."

That precaution is urged by the United States Department of Agriculture on all farmers who contemplate sowing the high-priced seed of a high-priced food this fall. To plant seed on poorly prepared land not only wastes the seed that does not germinate, the specialists point out, but it may mean the loss of an entire investment if a paying stand is not obtained.

A seed bed for wheat must be firm, moist, and well compacted with a mellow, finely divided upper three inches of soil, the specialists advise. If wheat is grown in rotation with oats or after wheat, the stubble should be plowed to a depth of at least 7 inches immediately after harvesting the preceding crop of grain. The ground should be harrowed with a few hours after plowing and cultivation with harrow, disk, drag, or roller should be given as necessary thereafter until planting time. These operations are necessary to kill weeds, to settle and make firm the subsoil, and to maintain a soil mulch on the surface. The earlier the preparation of a seed bed for wheat is started the better the condition of the soil will be at planting time. Late plowing does not allow time for thorough preparation.

If a cultivated crop precedes wheat, frequent cultivation given to this crop will preserve moisture and maintain a soil mulch. If level cultivation has been practiced, a good seed bed easily can be prepared by disking and harrowing after removing the crop. However, if weeds are present, it may be advisable to plow shallow, the disk preceding and following the plow.

Early plowing followed by thorough tillage aid in catching the water which falls and in conserving the water already in the soil for use by the wheat plants. The firm seed bed under the mulch thus made enables the young plants to make use of the subsoil waters which rise when there is a perfect union between the plowed soil and the subsoil. Sufficient moisture is thus assured for the germination of the seed and for the early fall growth of the seedlings, a very important consideration. Plant food is also likely to be more abundant in the soil when such methods are employed.

If the importance of thorough tillage were more generally recognized and proper methods of seed-bed preparation were more widely employed throughout the so-called humid area, there would be less frequent losses from drought and better wheat crops would result. The Department specialists declare, in this area the mistake is often made of thinking there will always be moisture enough present for a maximum crop growth, with the result that short crops often are obtained where more attention to moisture conservation would have assured good yields.

Treatment Of Seed.

Treatment of wheat against stinking smut is fairly easy, not expensive, and fully 95 per cent effective. The efficiency of the treatment is, in fact, practically 100 per cent in most of the wheat growing regions. The percentage of efficiency for the country as a whole, however, is reduced by the fact that in large regions in the Pacific Northwest the soil is polluted with smut germs to such an extent that the effects of seed treatment are negated. Seed treatment costs not to exceed 5 cents an acre for materials and labor. To this cost, however, must be added the cost of grain, the germination power of which may be destroyed by the treatment. This amounts at the most to 20 per cent. In every case the value of the wheat saved by treatment would amount to several times the cost of treatment.

Statistics show that the average annual loss of rye from smut is about 1 per cent—considerably less than the loss of wheat. It is well worth while, however, to treat rye seed also.

Method Of Treating Seed.

Several methods of treating seed for the destruction of smut spores are in use, but the best, it is believed, is the formaldehyde treatment. The grain should first be cleaned thoroughly with a fanning mill so that sawdust, shriveled grain, chaff, etc., will be removed. After the grain is clean it may be spread on a floor or a tarpaulin in a layer or pile several inches thick and sprinkled with a solution of formaldehyde made by mixing 1 pound of commercial formaldehyde with 4 gallons of water. An ordinary sprinkling can or a spraying machine is used and the grain is shoveled over and over until every kernel is wet. The grain is then placed in a pile and covered with sacks, blankets, or a tarpaulin for 2 hours or over night. It is then dried sufficiently to be run through the drill, after which it may be sown. If the grain is not passed through a fanning mill it should be placed in a vat or tank of the formaldehyde solution instead of being sprinkled. The smut balls will rise to the surface and may be skimmed off.

If the grain is not to be planted immediately, it must be dried sufficiently to prevent spoiling when placed in bins. If planted while damp and swollen, more grain by measure must be used to allow for the expansion.

It is kept dried, induce well-grown shoots to eat when and what they choose, and save grain, save labor, and get your hogs to market at the earliest possible date.

Thrifty Thought.

If clean wheat is available, says the United States Department of Agriculture, it may be ground at home in a coffee mill and the following economical and nutritious bread made:

Over a mixture of 1 tablespoonful sugar and 1 1/4 teaspoonfuls salt in a mixing bowl pour 1 1/4 cups of hot water or skim milk. When the liquid has become lukewarm, add 1/2 cake dry yeast or 1 gill liquid yeast and 1 1/2 cups of home-ground wheat flour. Set over night to rise. In the morning add 1 1/2 cups flour, beat well, put into greased pan, allow to rise until the bulk is doubled, and bake.

The Department of Agriculture advises the saving at home of plenty of beans and peas for next year's planting. Many other garden seeds can also be saved, and it will pay to save them.

NOTICE.

We again call the attention of our readers to the fact that The Republican will publish no communications unless signed by the author. Few weeks pass that anonymous articles are not received and it is not our desire to hurl news items into the waste basket. This anonymous communication rule is stated each week at the head of the editorial column and must be adhered to. Requests that names be omitted from print are complied with, but the manuscript must bear the writer's signature.

THE EDITOR.

German Recaptured.
Chattanooga, Tenn., Aug. 25.—Arnold Henkel, a German army officer, who saved his way out of prison at Ft. Oglethorpe, Ga., Thursday night, was captured by a farmer near there yesterday. Henkel approached the farmer's home and asked for something to eat. He was recognized and when he resisted arrest he was shot, receiving a flesh wound.

Life Was a Misery

Mrs. F. M. Jones, of Palmer, Okla., writes:
"From the time I entered into womanhood . . . I looked with dread from one month to the next. I suffered with my back and bearing-down pain, until life to me was a misery. I would think I could not endure the pain any longer, and I gradually got worse. . . . Nothing seemed to help me until, one day, . . . I decided to

The Woman's Tonic

"I took four bottles," Mrs. Jones goes on to say, "and was not only greatly relieved, but can truthfully say that I have not a pain."

"It has now been two years since I took Cardui, and I am still in good health. . . . I would advise any woman or girl to use Cardui who is a sufferer from any female trouble."

If you suffer from pain caused from womanly troubles, or if you feel the need of a good strengthening tonic to build up your run-down system, take the advice of Mrs. Jones. Try Cardui. It helped her. We believe it will help you.

SEWELL DESIRES CUT IN EXPENSES

GOVERNOR ASKED TO TAKE ACTION FOR STATE BY EXAMINER.

Frankfort, Ky., Aug. 25.—The elimination of exorbitant charges for hotel accommodations by State officials and employees and the "padding" of expense accounts, is recommended by State Inspector and Examiner Nat H. Sewell in a report filed today with Gov. Stanley.

The subject of "illegal, unwarranted and exorbitant" expense accounts is by no means a new one to Inspector Sewell. Nearly a year ago he raised the question of "trimming" expense accounts and since that time has secured the co-operation of Gov. Stanley, State Auditor Greene and M. M. Logan, who was then Attorney General, in his fight for the elimination of what he terms "illegal" expenditures. Many of the claims presented to State Auditor Greene for payment are now being refused, or cut down to meet the requirements of the law.

State Inspector and Examiner Sewell says that many of the State officials do not give any thought to economy when the State is paying their expenses and in a number of cases he says he has found instances where employees have systematically "padded" their expense accounts.

Inspector Sewell calls specific attention to the following classes of expense items that continue to appear in claims presented by State officials and employees and approved by heads of departments or heads of institutions: Pullman or chair car charges other than sleeper; excessive telephone and postage charges; higher hotel rates than are necessary for reasonable comfort and convenience; including in hotel bills expenses other than lodging and meals; unnecessary traveling from small towns in order to spend the night in a city; personal or incidental expenses not necessary in the performance of official duties and padded expense accounts.

Certain expense accounts examined, Inspector Sewell says, show daily charges for postage and telephone calls which he says is entirely inconsistent with the requirements of official duties in which the officer or employee is engaged. He recommends that all such charges be trimmed.

In the report Inspector Sewell calls attention to the expense account of a certain official for the month of May which amounted to $107.40, or an average cost of $3.54 per day. The expense account shows that this party spent twenty nights during the month in Louisville. No receipts for any of the expenses were filed with the account. Inspector Sewell does not name the man in the report, but refers to him as Mr. X. This account, he says, is a fair sample of the ones that have been presented during the past year and a half. He recommends that proper steps be taken to put a stop to expenditures of this character.

Inspector Sewell says there are other officials who drew either a monthly or a per diem salary on the assumption that they devote all of their time to the work of the State, who actually spend the greater part of their time in private employment and render only a small part of the service to the State for which they are paid. A report dealing specifically with these cases will be filed later by Inspector Sewell.

Baltimore, Aug. 25.—Getthold Prusse, German submarine expert, who came to Baltimore on the first trip of the merchant submarine Deutschland, was arrested here yesterday on the charge of entering barred zones without a permit. He is being held pending action by the Department of Justice. Prusse, who is a skilled engineer and inventor of submarine mechanism, did not return to Germany, but took a home in this city.

MASTER COMMISSIONER'S SALE.

Ohio Circuit Court, Oscar O. Petty, et al., Plaintiffs, vs. NOTICE, Mrs. Cordelia Petty, et al., Defendants.

By virtue of a judgment and order of sale of the Ohio Circuit Court, rendered at the September term, 1916, for the purpose of a sale and division of the proceeds among those who are entitled thereto, and for the purpose of paying the cost of this action and the cost of this sale, I will offer for sale at public auction to the highest and best bidder at the court house door in Hartford, Ky., on Monday, September 3rd, 1917, at about the hour of one o'clock p. m., the following described property, viz:

Two tracts or parcels of land in Narrows, Ohio County, Ky., and bounded as follows:

First tract—Beginning at a stone in the North line of the right of way of the I. C. R. R. near the depot; thence running with said right of way S. 57 1/2 E. 148 feet to a stone; thence N. 38 E. 148 feet to a stone; thence S. 148 feet to the beginning, containing 1/2 acre, more or less, and same land conveyed to B. P. Petty by the heirs of Ed Davison on April 2, 1912, and which deed is of record in deed book 43, page 432, Ohio County Clerk's office.

Second tract—Beginning at a stone in the North boundary line of the I. C. R. R.; thence with said line N. 56 1/2 W. 48 feet; thence N. 33 E. 102 feet; thence S. 52 E. 56 1/2 feet to a stone; thence S. 38 W. 100 feet to the beginning, containing 529 square feet, and being same land conveyed to B. P. Petty by Fitzhugh Renfrow and wife on May 22, 1899, which deed is of record in deed book 21, folio No. 592.

Each of said tracts to be sold subject to the widow's homestead. The purchaser will be required to execute bond with approved security immediately after sale, and a lien will be retained as further security. This August 13th, 1917.

MANY NEAR BE AERIAL PILOTS

YOUNG MEN BY THE HUNDREDS TRAIN FOR AIR SERVICE AT MISSOURI CAMP.

St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 25.—Every week in St. Louis an average of twenty-eight men qualify as balloon pilots, the first step in a long and tedious period of training to become balloon observers for the United States army. The men are being trained for the Balloon Division, Aviation Section of the United States Army Signal Corps, by the Missouri Aeronautical Society, of which Albert Bond Lambert is president.

To obtain a license from the Aero Club of America, a "rookie" must take seven flights, one all-night flight and a "solo" flight. A "solo" flight consists of laying out the balloon, inflating it, making a trip, deflating, packing and storing the balloon without assistance. The "solo" trip is what the students like best for it is the most exciting and interesting of them all.

One student started on his "solo" flight last week and began to descend in the vicinity of De Soto, Mo. The basket caught in the branches of a tree and he crawled out to free the balloon. As soon as it was released, the gas bag shot into the air, with the student hanging on the outside of the basket, one hand on the basket, the other on the drag rope. He hung like this until the balloon steadied itself more than 600 feet in the air, when he crawled back into the basket.

All the students are sent here from the Omaha training station, where they take the preliminary physical and technical examination. After making their qualifying flights here, they are sent back to Omaha for intensive training.

We shall have a pleasant surprise for all children who visit this store between 3 and 5 on Tuesday afternoon during the MAJESTIC DEMONSTRATION WEEK. All children are invited. Watch our advertisements for further particulars.

COMPLETE CHAOS

but were fatal to discipline of the troops. None the less subversive was the influence of Government commissaries, whose appointment he asserted created an extremely dangerous duality of power.

The General maintained that after publication by the Government of the declaration of the rights of soldiers, all respect toward leaders disappeared, the officers becoming veritable martyrs and having to pay very dearly for the offensive of August 1 and subsequent retreat. The General cited some remarkable illustrations of this. On one occasion, he said, when an attack was being launched, the force which advanced was made up of twenty-eight officers, twenty non-commissioned officers and two soldiers. All the others looked on coldly while these heroes perished.

The general declared it would be impossible to carry on the war to a victorious conclusion unless the strongest possible efforts were made by the Provisional Government and by the troops themselves to re-animate and regenerate the army.

Appeals For Victory.
After Madame Catherine Breshkovskaya, the "grandmother of the revolution," had appealed to the Government to pass from words to actions and help the army conquer the enemy, Prince Peter Kropotkin, who was not on the list of speakers, was heard at the request of the whole conference. He called upon all Russians to prevent the fatal eventuality of a German victory and expressed the hope that Russia would not be proclaimed a federative republic.

This sentiment, submitted to the conference for the first time, evoked a long-continuous ovation in honor of Prince Kropotkin. Other speakers who declared against a separate peace were loudly applauded.

Demonstration and Sale

At Our Store, One Week Only

Sept. 3, To Sept. 8
COME!

SEE the GREAT MAJESTIC—The Range with a Reputation—in its new dress. Let the factory representative show you why the MAJESTIC Bakes Better—Looks Better—Lasts Longer—Heats More Water Quicker and Hotter and Uses Less Fuel than any other range. We want to prove these facts to you—want you to know why the MAJESTIC is so highly recommended by your neighbor—why it is the Standard by which all ranges are judged—why it is known in every county in every State as The Range with a Reputation.

FREE! SET OF MARBLEIZED AND COPPER WARE

As a special inducement during this week only, we have arranged with the factory to present each purchaser of a Majestic Range with a handsome and useful set of cooking ware as illustrated. This is your opportunity to get something really worth while for nothing. Ranges will be sold at the regular prices.

Children's Souvenir Day—

Boys and Girls, this is something worth while, with only a little effort on your part. Now listen:—Majestic High Fliers FREE to the boys and girls who hand in written answers to the following questions during the two hours, 3 to 5 p. m., Tuesday of Demonstration Week.

1. What is the name of your mother's range, and how long has it been in use?
2. Give names of persons you know needing a new range.
3. Why does the MAJESTIC bake better, last longer, heat more water and use less fuel than any other range?
4. What is your age? When is your birthday?

$1.00 Article Free!

The boy or girl giving the neatest and best answer to the third question, may select any $1.00 article from our stock, in addition to the souvenir. In case of a tie, those tying will receive the same prize. THERE WILL BE SOMETHING FOR ALL OF YOU! Remember the time, 3 to 5 p. m., TUESDAY. All children are invited.

Everybody—Don't Fail to See the Great Majestic Range in the NEW FINISH at our store.

The assignee, J. W. McCarty, is ordered and directed to make sale of the above property, to the highest and best bidder on a credit of three months. He will sell said property at the court house door in Hartford, Kentucky, on the first day of the regular term of the county or Circuit Court, held in and for Ohio county. Before making said sale, he will advertise the time and place thereof by publication in the Hartford Republican, for not less than three issues prior to day of said sale and by written notice posted at the court house door in Hartford, Kentucky, for not less than fifteen days just prior to day of sale, and he will report his acts at the next term of this court, to which time this action is continued.

Pursuant to the above judgment, I will on Monday, September 17, 1917, at about the hour of one o'clock p. m., at the court house door in Hartford, Ky., sell the above described property to the highest and best bidder, on a credit of three months. Purchaser will be required to execute bond with approved security immediately after sale.
